

Praise of the Hawaii-Panama Edition

706 Classon Avenue,
Brooklyn, January 12, 1915.

Editor Star-Bulletin, Honolulu:

A copy of your Hawaii-Panama edition has just been received from my brother. The beauty and coloring of its views far exceed anything that has ever been published in Hawaii. Wishing your paper a prosperous new year.

Sincerely,
MR. AND MRS. A. ROSS (nee Godfrey).

CHARITIES START YEAR 1915 WITH NEW DIRECTORS

The Associated Charities began a new year's work today under a new board of directors elected at the annual meeting yesterday. It developed at the meeting that the past year was an unusually busy one for the organization.

Directors were elected as follows: Members to serve one year—J. H. Galt, W. F. Dillingham, A. D. Castro, T. M. Church, A. F. Wall, Mrs. A. C. Alexander and Mrs. W. D. Westervelt.

Members to serve two years—W. L. Whitney, Alonzo Gentry, R. J. Buchly, George Sherman, E. H. Wodehouse, Mrs. A. Fuller and Mrs. F. M. Swanzy.

Members to serve three years—S. B. Dele, James Gibb, W. F. Frear, J. L. Cockburn, G. J. Waller, Mrs. F. W. Macfarlane and Mrs. Carl du Roi.

Officers to serve during the coming fiscal year will be elected at a meeting of the board of directors next Tuesday afternoon.

President A. Lewis, Jr., presided at the meeting. In a brief address Governor L. E. Pinkham expressed himself as being in sympathy with the policy of the Associated Charities and promised to give due consideration to its future plans. Other reports were presented by Miss Margaret Bergen, social welfare and charity work organizer; W. S. Bowen, manager; Percy Deverill, treasurer; Miss Ruth Benedict, secretary; and President Lewis. These reports outlined the work done by the association during the past year. It was pointed out that $5.91 was required to convey aid to each of the 657 cases coming under the jurisdiction of the association. In this manner more than $900 was expended.

President Lewis' report dealt largely with a history of the association touching briefly on the work of 1914. In part, he said:

"During the year the membership was increased by 169 from eighty-three on January 1, 1914, to 252 on January 1, 1915. The large increase in membership is due principally to the efforts of Mrs. Alice C. Jordan. The number of family cases receiving relief in 1914 was 657, as against 240 in 1913. The expenditures for the past year were $9119.58, of which $3923.32 constituted overhead, or $5.91 per family case. During the year government appropriations were received to the amount of $800, all from the city and county of Honolulu. In the year 1913 there was expended the sum of $5660.95."

LOCAL AND GENERAL

For want of evidence the case against Ralph Gonsalves, alleging assault and battery, was nolle prossed in Judge Ashford's court today.

A school known as the "Good Neighbor's Institution" has been opened at the Palama Settlement by Rev. K. Ishida. There is an enrollment of 170 children.

The federal trial jurors have been summoned to appear in court next Wednesday at 8:30 o'clock in the morning.

Schofield Lodge, F. and A. M., will hold a special meeting with work in the first degree this evening in Masonic Temple, Lelehu.

A form of judgment in the matter of Estate vs. George H. Brown et al will be submitted to Judge Sanford B. Dole in the federal court Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Four petitions for writs of habeas corpus will be heard in the federal court next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The petitioners are Kotchi shee, Kimi Yamamoto, Chiye Kajikani and Natsu Ishii.

On the ground of non-support Antonio Rice was granted a divorce by Judge Whitney today from Thomas Rice. She is awarded custody of the minor child.

The Hawaiian Trust Company, executor under the will of the late Eugene T. Hendry, has filed a petition in circuit court asking that its final accounts be approved.

Profits to be made in raising squab broilers for the local market are being pointed out to poultry raisers. There is a good demand for broilers and the market is open throughout the year.

W. R. Haley is now working on the Pleasanton hotel grounds in an effort to save the monkey pod trees on those grounds. He is cutting out decayed parts of the trunk and filling them with cement.

Members of the board appointed by Maj.-gen. William H. Carter to handle the military end of the Carnival, were to meet with Director-General James D. Dougherty in the Promotion Committee rooms at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The supreme court will hear argument next Monday morning on a motion for allowance of exceptions in the case of W. F. Armstrong, who was convicted recently of embezzlement and given a sentence of two years' imprisonment.

Woman's Auxiliary and Guild of St. Andrew's parish will meet at the residence of Mrs. L. Tenney Peck, 1328 Wilder avenue, Tuesday, Jan. 26, at 3 p. m. Paper: "The Spirit of Christianity in the Writings of Tagore," by Mrs. Arthur G. Smith.

H. Gooding Field, L. A. Thurston and Raymond Smith told about Kauai yesterday at the nikers' luncheon on the Y. M. C. A. lawn. The Outdoor Committee of the Promotion Committee is arranging an excursion to the Garden Island, which leaves Honolulu at 10 o'clock Friday night, February 12.

The committee on ways and means of the board of supervisors will recommend to the board at the next meeting that the contract for the burial of indigent dead be awarded to M. E. Silva, local undertaker, whose bid was $17.70 per body. H. H. Williams, his nearest competitor, bid $18.70, $1 higher.

S. M. Lowrey, W. M. Minton and Henry R. Macfarlane, appraisers of the estate of Warren Chamberlain, today filed their inventory of the property. It shows the estate to consist of one piece of land on Gulick avenue, a quantity of stock and bonds and a number of notes, secured by mortgage, the whole appraised at a valuation of $28,077.63.

In its investigation of the alleged Gulick avenue gambling hui the territorial grand jury yesterday questioned J. Walter Doyle, Tom Quinn, Joseph Leal, Sam McMillan and Mrs. Anna Gertz, the last-named being proprietor of the house. Mrs. Gertz admitted she rented the place to a member of the crowd, but says she did not know the real purpose for which it was wanted. The investigation is not ended, the inquirers intending to resume work on the case next Thursday, when a number of additional witnesses are to be examined.

KANAE IS FINED $50 ON FOURTH OFFENSE

In assessing a $50 fine against Frank Kanae, the policeman found guilty by the jury of assaulting a young Portuguese, Circuit Judge Ashford this morning brought out the information that the same officer has been convicted three times within the last two months of similar offenses. He was fined in the district court for assaults on Archie Robertson and a Chinese. In all instances, said the court, the over-zealousness of the policeman seemed due to an ungovernable temper and too much muscle. The judge said he had been told, however, that Kanae was considered one of the best men on the force in dangerous cases, where considerable nerve and bravery seemed required.

If all local poultry raisers will carefully read and preserve the series of California Feed Company advertisements on chick feeds—the series forming a chick feed calendar—there is apt to be more profit in the poultry business for the ones who do the work.

It is considered reckless management for a man to put more than 20 per cent of his income into any venture which may be classed as speculative. If this rule were adhered to there would be a falling off in the percentage of human regrets of about 50 per cent. There are, at the present time, a large number of standard, dividend-paying stocks which may be bought at a figure which assures a higher price when the commercial world recovers from the shock of the great war. Among the best of these high grade stocks is the first preferred stock of Pacific Gas & Electric Company, which pays a net income of over 7-1/2 per cent. C. G. Bockus is the agent for Hawaii.

Notwithstanding yesterday's sugar rise to four cents the stocks were unable to make complete recovery today and there was a mixture of feeling, with some gains and some losses. A noticeable feature was trading in some securities that had not figured in sales for many weeks. These were Paia, Wailua and Honokaa.

There were four transactions in Paia between boards, all at 130, five points higher than the last sale. Today two sales were made in Wailua at 90, an advance of 2 1/2. Honokaa on the other hand was down 3/4, going at 43.

Between boards Olas went up 1/4 to 5 1/4, but McBryde dropped another 1/4, selling at 5 1/4. Oahu also declined 1/4. This morning Ewa made partial recovery, 60 selling at 21 1/4. Pioneer declined to 23 1/4, losing 1/4. H. C. & S. went down another 1/4 to 33 1/4. Brewery was unchanged on two sales, while Pahang Rubber was down 1/4.

THE COUNTY PURSE

When the treasurer's office closed last night there was a total cash fund of $131,842.54 in the city and county treasury. Of this amount $21,093.17 was in the general fund, $2648.03 in the permanent improvement fund, the Catholic cemetery, King street, $18,986.80 in the school fund, $927.12

OLDEN TIMES IN HAWAII WILL BE SEEN IN PAGEANT

the customary wailing was over Kilauea said:

"We two may die. Here is our aged uncle"—Keawemahuhi—"pushing us on to war. Perhaps you and I may be slain. Alas for we two. Aloha ino kama."

Mighty Battle Fought.

At the time of this occurrence Kona was held by four powerful chieftains; namely, Keaumokupapahehe, Kameelamoku and Kamaheha, twin brothers, and Keawehahe. They persuaded Kekuhaupio of Keel, the greatest warrior of his time, to put Kamehameha at the head of an army with their aid.

The first battle was fought at Mo'ouahi and Kilauea was slain by Keaumokupapahehe. This led to the accession of Kamehameha to the sovereignty of West Hawaii.

In the meantime, however, Kamehameha had other foes to overcome. Keawemahuhi, king of North Hawaii, was slain by Keouakuahehu in battle and in order to become king of the entire island Kamehameha had to conquer Keona.

Towards the close of 1791 two of Kamehameha's chief counselors, Kamaheha and Keawehahe, were sent as an embassy to Keona, in Kau. Keona was urged by his chief warriors to put the messengers to death, which he indignantly refused to do.

Keona and his brother, with a large retinue of chiefs and warriors, accompanied the messengers back to Kamehameha, landing at Kawaihae. Seeking Kamehameha on the beach, Keona called out to him:

"Here I am."

"Rise up and come here," answered Kamehameha, "so that we may know each other."

Killed With a Spear.

As Keona was in the act of leaping ashore, Keaumoku killed him with a spear. His body was burned in an oven below the heiau of Puukohala.

The death of Keona made Kamehameha the moi of Hawaii and was the first step toward the consolidation of the group under one government.

As one author says, in speaking of Kamehameha:

"We may admire the foundation Kamehameha laid. We must also note that blood is one of its corner stones—a blot on the Kamehameha escutcheon."

The remaining islands were finally brought under Kamehameha's rule. After conquering Kalanikupule, heir of Kahekehi, and through the ceding of Kauai by Kaunuuhi, son of Kaekua, Kamehameha became the conqueror of the group. Formerly the islands were independent and petty kingdoms having their respective kings and queens.

The conquering of all the islands by Kamehameha was the dawn of the new era, which forms the second part of the pageant.

In the roads fund, $50,459.18 in the water works fund, $3225.23 in the sewer works fund, $26,108.01 in the cash basis fund, $15 in the fund for importation of game birds and $3332.95 in cash not provided for in specific or regular funds. The treasurer has issued warrants on $7341.99, a deficit remaining when the old administration retired.

POLICE SIGHTINGS

Officer Barboza last night placed Asa, a Japanese, under arrest upon a charge of larceny of merchandise from a store conducted by Ah Chong.

Charged and found guilty of acting as banker in a gambling game Lum Sing, a Chinese, was fined $50 at district court by Judge Monsarrat. The defendant will appeal his case to the circuit court.

W. Kroil, riding a motorcycle, received injuries yesterday in a collision with an automobile near King and Bishop streets. Imoto, the driver of the machine, was ordered to the police station for investigation.

Alleged to be under the influence of liquor, W. W. Ordonoff and Kaia Hose were badly injured last night by the premature explosion of a stick of dynamite. The men were said by the police to be participating in a carouse in upper Manoa valley. Ordonoff was taken to the hospital with badly lacerated legs. Hose lost an arm by the explosion.
